THE CITY OF NEW YORK THE MAYOR'S OFFICE OF OPERATIONS, NYC DEPARTMENT of HOUSING PRESERVATION & DEVELOPMENT NOTICE of a COMMENT PERIOD on the Conflict of Interest Public Disclosure

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, COMMUNITY BOARDS, GROUPS, AND PERSONS:

On March 11, 2021, President Biden signed the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (P.L. 117-2) ("ARP") into law. ARP provided, under section 3205 for the HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME), for homelessness assistance and supportive services to address the continued impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the economy, public health, State and local governments, individuals, and businesses. Congress appropriated $5 billion, which was allocated to participating jurisdictions using the HOME allocation formula. In Federal Fiscal Year 2021, HUD awarded the City of New York the amount of $269,831,517 in HOME-ARP funds for proposed activities through September 30, 2030.

In order to receive the allocated funds, the City is required to develop and submit to HUD a HOME-ARP Allocation Plan, which describes how the HOME-ARP funds would be used for eligible activities.

As part of the City of New York's Allocation Plan to receive its allocation of HOME-ARP funds, the City proposes that the New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) as a subrecipient will use a portion of the City's roughly $270 million allocation to administer financial assistance, specifically supportive services through the payment of rental arrears, to individuals or families occupying public housing owned by NYCHA. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has identified that such proposed use of funds poses an organizational conflict of interest under Section VII.H.2 of the HOME-ARP Notice, which specifies that a subrecipient may not administer financial assistance, including rental payments, with respect to individuals or families occupying housing owned by the subrecipient, nor may it condition supportive services on an individual's or family's occupancy of a housing unit owned by the subrecipient. See CPD-21-10: Requirements for the Use of Funds in the HOME-American Rescue Plan Program, issued September 13, 2021 (the "HOME-ARP Notice"), Section VII.H.2. HUD guidance provides that Public Housing Authorities ("PHAs") may not forgive or reduce rental arrears with public housing operating or capital funds, which by regulation are not calculated to make up for arrears or shortfalls in rent. HUD instead encourages PHAs to partner with localities and other partners to aid families in need of assistance. In keeping with such guidance, NYCHA and the City have sought HOME-ARP assistance in order to provide rental arrears relief to eligible families. The payments administered by NYCHA under HOME-ARP will reduce families' past due rent by the amount of the payment, and will therefore provide needed relief to NYCHA's families in arrears. However, any such assistance to reduce families' past due rent will also be funds that NYCHA directs to itself because NYCHA is the housing provider to whom such past rent is due. Because this provision of HOME-ARP assistance involves NYCHA administering payments to itself to reduce the amounts due from NYCHA's public housing tenants, HUD has identified that it is the type of assistance that is prohibited under Section VII.H.2, absent an exception granted by HUD.

Pursuant to the HOME-ARP Notice, a HOME-ARP participating jurisdiction may request from HUD an exception to an organizational conflict of interest, provided that the jurisdiction provides, among other things, written disclosure of the nature of the conflict. See HOME-ARP Notice, Section VII.H.4. The City intends to make such a request for an exception to HUD, and pursuant to that request is making this public disclosure.

The public is invited to comment upon the potential conflict of interest posed by NYCHA administering supportive services through the payment of rental arrears to individuals or families occupying public housing owned by NYCHA. Persons wishing to respond are asked to submit their written comments to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development HOME ARP Team at homearp@hpd.nyc.gov.

The 5-business day Public Comment Period on the Conflict of Interest Public Disclosure is scheduled from November 3rd, 2023 - November 9th, 2023. To learn more about NYC Department of Housing Preservation and Development please visit us at <http://www.nyc.gov/hpd>.

Call-ups provide Nets needed hand

By BRIAN LEWIS

MIAMI — Tuesday morning, two-ways Armoni Brooks and Jalen Wilson had just started training camp with G-League Long Island, and Trendon Watford was still looking to make his season debut with Brooklyn.

Wednesday night, the trio helped the Nets to a 109-105 come-from-behind victory over the Heat. Brooks had 17 points on 6 of 7 shooting, 5 of 6 from deep. He finished a staggering plus-30 in just 15:55 after a whirlwind 24 hours or so.

"So what's today? Tuesday? Wednesday? So Tuesday morning I had practice with the team in Long Island, started training camp, had a good practice there. And right after practice, probably about noon, we found out we were coming to Miami," said Brooks. "We had to hurry up, go shower and catch a flight within three hours and landed about 7 o'clock last night. And we went to shootaround and just prepped ourselves to get ready to play."

This was the Nets' fifth straight win over Miami, tying their longest streak over the Heat in franchise history. It also marked a fourth straight road win in Miami, a franchise record.

Watford had 11 points, four assists and four boards, a secondary playmaker with point guards Spencer Dinwiddie and Dennis Smith Jr. hurt and Ben Simmons in foul trouble.

"Just staying ready, man. They work hard. They work hard all summer, preseason, everything," said Mikal Bridges. "We've got a lot of depth and they just shined when opportunity was called. It's big for us."

"Good for them to just to feel good. But we're gonna need that. We've got bodies down and the NBA is 82 games and injuries happened and stuff like that."

"Spencer was more day-to-day with his ankle injury," Vaughn said. "Then Dennis tried to go through shootaround [Wednesday] morning a little bit, and tried to do a little effort to be available tonight. Just doesn't have it."

Vaughn wouldn't speculate on whether either would be back for Friday's In-Season Tournament game at Chicago.

"I'm not in a position to rule in or out," said Vaughn.

Starting center Nic Claxton (sprained left ankle) and starting power forward Cam Johnson (strained left calf) were also out, as expected. Claxton has been out of his walking boot and is making progress.

➤ Cam Thomas went into Wednesday averaging 32.1 in eight career starts. That's second all-time according to Elias, ahead of Michael Jordan (30.5), James Harden (27.9) and Luka Doncic (27.7). The only player who averaged more was Kenny Lofton Jr., who poured in 42 in his lone start.
